

A Special Presentation

Featuring Joseph Gyurcsak

Nationally Recognized Plein Air Artist and Author

Nationally recognized plein air artist Joe Gyurcsak published "Taking a Neutral Approach to Value and Color" in the Feb/Mar 2020 issue of Plein Air Magazine. In this article, Joe talks about "how to make your focal areas sing, keep the majority of your painting neutral, reserving your lightest lights, darkest darks, and purest colors for key points of interest."

AOY is delighted and honored to host this informative presentation with such a talented artist. Joe will present live from his studio via Zoom. Whether you paint en plein air or not, this presentation will certainly provide new ideas and techniques for you to improve your paintings!
