A collage of five distinct artworks is displayed in a fan-like arrangement. Demonstration on Handmade Felting with Nelly Kouzmina

Saturday, March 13, 3:30 - 4:30 pm

AOY Art Center Gallery

What is Handmade Felting? It's taking fibers and other materials and mashing them together, then molding them into beautiful pieces of wearable art! Curious?

The demonstration is free. We look forward to seeing you there!

The Members Spotlight Show #1 runs through March 21 and features seven wonderful AOY member artists and artisans.

Aida Birritteri, Watercolors

Lynn Holl, Watercolors

Nelly Kouzmina, Hand Felted Wearable Art

Noe LaFramboise, Oils

George Olexa, Oil Paintings and Etchings

John Slavin, Photography

Julie Stell, Iconography in Oils

You can see the art in-person in our Gallery on Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays, 12 - 5 pm and/or browse our Online Gallery. If you are able to come to the Center, we have to say there's nothing quite as soul-inspiring as seeing art in person and responding to it in your own way. After weeks of snow and isolation, we invite you to come into the Gallery and experience the show for yourself!

Face masks are required and, for everyone's safety, the number of visitors allowed in the Gallery at any one time will be limited.

We hope you'll stop by and treat yourself to experiencing art again!
